

2015 Awards Luncheon Awards Recipients Indonesian Diaspora Network – Southern California

Julia Gouw

Ms. Julia S. Gouw has been the President and Chief Operating Officer of East West Bancorp, Inc. since November 30, 2009.

East West Bank is a bank based in the state of California in the United States, with assets of $29.9 billion and a market capitalization of over $5.8 billion. Under Gouw's leadership, East West achieved 11 consecutive years of record earnings.

Gouw has been ranked among the “25 Most Powerful Women in Banking” five times by American Banker Magazine and has twice received the Los Angeles Business Journal's “Women Making a Difference” award. She has also been recognized in Los Angeles Business Journal's “L.A.'s Top Women in Finance”. Gouw has been named Philanthropist of the Year by the National Association of Women Business Owners in Los Angeles. She has also been featured in the book Women Leaders at Work – Untold Tales of Women Achieving Their Ambitions alongside a select group of women founders and CEOs.

Dr. Boen Setiawan PhD

At 80, Dr. Boen has built Kalbe Farma into the country's largest pharmaceutical company in Southeast Asia, and still sees plenty of growth ahead.

Kalbe Farma is known as the country's largest pharmaceutical company, under the long-time leadership of its founder, Dr. Boenjamin Setiawan, known affectionately as Dr. Boen. Now in its 47th year of operation, Kalbe has moved well beyond its core franchise into a host of other businesses related to a focus on healthcare and wellness. That diversification includes hospitals, distribution, nutritional and consumer products.*

Prof. Wenten Nyoman

Adjunct Associate Professor
Music of Bali ensemble

Education:

Ph.D. Ethnomusicology, UCLA;

Advanced Degree from the National Academy of Dance
in Jogjakarta, Java;

Degree from the Music and Dance Conservatory in Bali.

I Nyoman Wenten is one of Bali's most versatile dancers and musicians. He is well known for his abilities in Javanese as well as his native Balinese dance and music. He has taught at the National Academy of Dance in both Bali and Java, and at many music and dance programs in the United States including the Center for World Music, San Jose State University, University of Wisconsin, University of Washington, San Francisco State University, UCLA, UCSD and San Diego State University. He has toured and performed throughout the United States, the People's Republic of China, the Philippines, Japan, Mexico, and Europe. In addition to teaching at UCLA, he is currently Chair of Balinese and Javanese Music and Dance, World Music at California Institute of the Arts.

Tania Gunadi

Tania Gunadi is an Indonesian-born American actress. She is best known for her series regular role as Emma Lau on the Disney XD series Aaron Stone (2010), as Miko Nakadai on the Hub series Transformers Prime (2012) and the YouTube webseries MyMusic (2012). She is also known for her roles in Disney Channel original films Pixel Perfect (2004) Go Figure (2005), and her role as Princess Dee in Disney Junior's Imagination Movers (2012). Her film resume includes Hallmark Hall of Fame "The Magic of Ordinary Days", feature films "Bob Funk", "Possession" and "Zambezia". In 2012 she recorded an animated pilot Penn Zero: Part-Time Hero (Disney XD).

Gunadi supports Alley Cat Allies, a nonprofit advocacy organization dedicated to transforming communities to protect and improve the lives of cats. In 2011, Gunadi appeared in commercials for Honda and Target. Since 2012, Gunadi has been involved in a YouTube show called MyMusic.

The Havelaars

My name is Jeff Havelaar. I'm of Dutch-Indonesian decent, and was born in Jakarta, Indonesia. My wife Noorita(aka Inong) was also born in Indonesia. We lived in Holland for 3 years before immigrating to Los Angeles in 1960. My brothers and I were inspired by my parents to help anyone in need. She was working as a Clinical Nursing Assistant in an Elder Care Facility in 1998. I was impressed with the interaction between her and the elderly clients.

We have done numerous fundraisers to help rebuild an elementary school, support an orphanage for building an high in East Kalimantan, Indonesia. Helped the flood victims in Merapi volcano victims. Helped raised funds to pay for final internment expenses for dying cancer victims and, setup bank accounts their child